

C.A.F.E. at the Oak Creek Farmers Market

The City of Oak Creek is pleased to announce C.A.F.E., a day to celebrate our city's ethnic diversity through educational interaction and thoughtful conversation. This event will take place on Saturday, October 2, 2021 at the Oak Creek Farmers Market, starting at 10 a.m.

This community event is made possible through the participation of organizations sharing their history and culture to create a global experience.

Please consider sharing your uniqueness following the C.A.F.E. outline:

Cultural (ethnic/racial/folk/societal/lifestyle)

The ideas, customs, and social behavior of a society.

Art (skill/craft/technique/aptitude/talent/flair)

The various branches of creative activity, such as painting, music, literature, and dance.

Food (cooking/baking/cuisine/nourishment/edibles)

Any nutritious substance that people eat or drink in order to maintain life and growth.

Entertainment (show/performance/presentation/production/extravaganza)

The action of providing or being provided with amusement or enjoyment.

We are looking for ethnic organizations to help us create an environment of inclusiveness.

There will be no charge to participate.

We ask that each organization consider providing (but not limited to): information about history of ethnic group, booth/table decorations, samples of traditional food for 350+ people*, customary clothing or art (current or past), flag or banner, and performances of music or dancing. The booth needs to be manned with knowledgeable people who will engage and educate the community about the group.

The City of Oak Creek will provide each accepted organization:

- 10'x10' area
- $200 to offset related expenses
