36	I think more interactive social events and health alerts ex. flu outbreaks at various schools or the state but not sure that's a health dept. responsibility. I also note statistics have been removed from the web site which drew me to the site and this survey.	9/25/2013 6:06 PM
37	Provide sources (links) on the website for information on exercise, planning healthy meals, and information on disease prevention.	9/18/2013 3:24 PM
38	Maybe introduce a health fair once a year sponsored by the city in which it delivers awareness to the neighborhood of its programs available, good healthy eating habbits, etc.	9/5/2013 10:33 AM
39	The health department SHOULD work on presenting itself as a place to seek resources/answers/assistance. When the community health events are marketed as "The Mayor's Fitness Challenge" or "Aurora Healthcare Series," the community doesn't associate health with the health department. What do you DO? What do you OFFER? WHY should people be coming to the health department over (other than the obvious notion of community development that this community seems to be losing)?	9/3/2013 9:28 AM
